Feminist Spin coordinators Mary Lou Riordon-Sello and Joan Caplan invited curators, selectors, programmers, and owners of Galleries in Calgary - including commercial galleries, museums, artist run centres, magazines, theatre and women's groups - to program their spaces with Feminist Practice for the month of March, 1994. The depth and diversity of Feminist Practice within the Calgary community is evidenced by enthusiastic and challenging responses to letters, phone calls, meetings, and from the support of feminists who continually nurture their communities. With the many threads gathered through this process, a fluid weave of lively community collaborations and individual multidisciplinary exhibitions and discussions form the fabric of Feminist Spin.
